Dear Ronda:

I am writing to follow up on our first bargaining session of March 27, 2019. As the parties agreed, our bargaining session on April 8 will be devoted to the non-economic proposals we presented on the morning of the 27th in addition to your non-economic proposals.

As we discussed at the table, the Union does understand that context is needed in order for Children's to evaluate our proposals. We are willing to discuss our initial proposals in context, but questions and discussion about our purely economic proposals should be reserved for future sessions.

Best,

John Aho
