

ST. ALEXIUS MNA NURSES

RAISING STANDARDS TOGETHER

BARGAINING UPDATE

July 10th, 2020

Our Picket Changed the Bargaining Table

Going back to the bargaining table yesterday, for the first session after our picket, we had the most open conversation we have had with the employer so far. They said they'd take our economics proposals back to the real decisionmakers in Omaha and come back with an economic response next time we bargain (July 21). It is clear to us that every time we use our voices and push via actions, they negotiate a little more. There is still a lot on the table when it comes to staffing and economics. How do we push this over the finish line to a fair contract together?
